

I'D RATHER WEAR A HAT THAN WEAR A HALO © copyright

Lyrics: Suzie Craig

Music: Mark Simpkin, Clive Pollard, Robert Brooking, David White

Website: www.mossmusic.com.au

INTRO:

I'd rather wear a hat than wear a halo, I'd rather wear a hat than wear a halo
I'd rather wear a hat than wear a halo, I'd rather wear a hat than wear a halo

VERSE 1:

The queen of the desert, I got nothing to lose
Nothing in front of me, what will I choose
I'll put a little Amoco in my machine
The dust in the mirror's the best I've seen

CHORUS 1:

I'd rather wear a hat than wear a halo, I'd rather wear a hat than wear a halo

VERSE 2:

Bad things going on, I don't know what to do
So do what you can, then make the best of you
Oh it's a beautiful show to be seen and heard
But before you drink it, make it shaken not stirred

CHORUS 2:

I'd rather wear a hat than wear a halo, I'd rather wear a hat than wear a halo

BRIDGE

Don't apologise for the sand in your shoes
Or the wind in your hair, cos your life's is on the loose
It will make you mad and it will make you sad
So put your paint on your brush and brush like mad.
Don't apologise for the sand in your shoes,
Or the wind in your hair, 'cos you're life is on the loose.

SOLO's:

VERSE 3:

Big blue space staring back at me
Didn't pay a cent, didn't rent it's free
Goanna on the rock, goanna in my car
Singin' the tunes right up to Williams bar

CHORUS 3:

I'd rather wear a hat than wear a halo, I'd rather wear a hat than wear a halo
I'd rather wear a hat than wear a halo, I'd rather wear a hat than wear a halo

© copyright

