INTRODUCTION:

VERSE 1:

You made a noise and thousands of voices were heard
They came, they stood beside you, they kept their word
What made your heart.... burn like a fire?
What drove your pain.... your sacrifice, your desire?

VERSE 2:

Was it the cage that held you still?
Or the times they tried to break your will?
You gave it all you had, they watched you gather 'round
On that darkened Friday, when they knocked you to the ground

BRIDGE:

They dragged you away and they tried to silence you
But your cries became louder; you were stronger than they knew
Be seen be heard, again and again. Be seen be heard, again and again

The world was watching now, you knew your time was here
And you stood before the King; you raised your flag with no fear

GUITAR SOLO:

REFRAIN 1:

What made your heart burn like a fire?
What drove your pain, your sacrifice, your desire?

SPOKEN:

They're focused on us now, so be seen, make a noise, be heard
Be there all the time, change is all we have, votes for women, suffragettes forever

REFRAIN 2:

The world was watching now, you knew your time was here
And you stood before the King; you raised your flag with no fear

OUTRO:

You gave all you had
You gave all you had . . . Emily
