INTRODUCTION:

VERSE 1:

From Pondalowie to the Nullarbor
Cactus waves I'd never seen before
My EH was my home the surf my friend.

VERSE 2:

From the shed to the stag the bands were raw
The greatest rock I'd never heard before
Chisel, Rudd Daddy Cool you were my friends.

REFRAIN 1:

In the summer of seventy five
We lived our lives in overdrive
Campfires on the beach till morning light.

MIDDLE BREAK / SOLO

VERSE 3:

My tangled hair stung by the sun
The panel vans lines up for fun
Moana silver sands you were my friends

VERSE 4:

When mates of mine were mates I knew,
Guitar and keys, played a gig or two
Countdown came alive, it would never end

REFRAIN 2:

In the summer of seventy five
We lived our lives in overdrive
Campfires on the beach till morning light.
